

BellSouth's request would badly affect my ability to do business because I rely on Sonic.net's abilities as a small ISP. If all the control goes into the hands of big Corporations it will adversely affect all business across the country and only benefit the big ones.